For peace in the world, for the health of the church, for the unity of all;
For this holy house, for all who worship and praise,
Let us pray to the Lord, let us pray to the Lord.

That we may live out your impassioned response to the hungry and the poor;
That we may live out . . . truth and justice and grace,
Let us pray to the Lord, let us pray to the Lord.

Refrain

Prayer of the Day

L: Loving God, you call us to turn away from our own selfish interests, to take up our cross, and to follow after you — to find our lives by giving them up to your greater purpose.

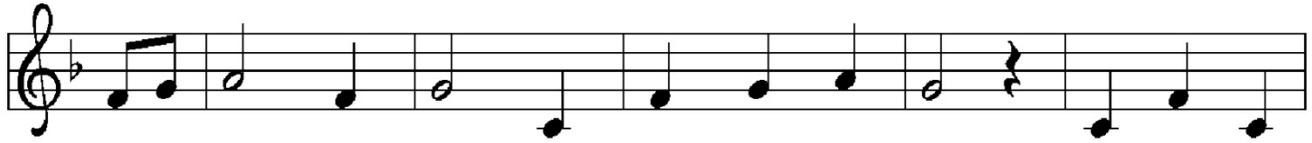

Through the power of your Holy Spirit, move within us and among us as we worship. Open our eyes to your presence; open our ears to your call; open our hearts to one another; and send us back out into the world to live and work as your faithful disciples.

In the name of Jesus Christ, our Redeemer and Lord. Amen.

Pastor Ward Misenheimer

The Iona Abbey Creed

L: Now let us confess our faith with the words of the Iona Creed:

C: We believe in God above us,
maker and sustainer of all life,
of sun and moon, water and earth,
of the breadth and beauty of all humanity.

We believe in God beside us, Jesus Christ,
the Word made flesh, born of a woman, servant of the poor,
tortured and nailed to a tree.

A man of sorrows, he died forsaken.

He descended into the earth to the place of death.

On the third day he rose from the tomb.

He ascended into heaven to be everywhere present,
and His kingdom will come on earth.

We believe in God within us,

the Holy Spirit of Pentecostal fire,

Life-giving breath of the church,

Spirit of healing and forgiveness,

Source of resurrection and of eternal life. Amen

Prayers of the Faithful

L: Lord, look on your world. We know the world is so fractured and filled with chaos and crises of our own making. Teach us to pray, and when we struggle to pray, may your Spirit intercede with the words we cannot find. Come, Holy Spirit!

A brief silence.

L: Lord of all faithfulness, you call us to follow Jesus. Set our minds on divine things, so that as we lose our lives for his sake, we may discover joy in life through him. Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

- L: Lord of all justice, you are the one who raises up those who are bent low, so we pray for those held down by the grindings of life and the indifference of the world. By the power of your Holy Spirit, give us the courage and the boldness to work toward abolishing social structures which continue to perpetuate racial practices and policies in our own communities. Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.
- L: Lord of all compassion, you call us to hold the needs of our sisters and brothers as dear to us as our own needs. We pray for all of our sisters and brothers who seek comfort, healing, refuge, rest, peace, wholeness, community, acceptance, and unconditional love.

We especially pray for

- Jessie Amaker
- The Ashton family
- Josh Baker
- Lindsey Baker
- Lemont Bell
- Anne Brown (Teleah Amaker's mother)
- Freda Christ

L: We now pray aloud or in the silence of our hearts for those we wish to name (give time for community to pray).

L: We remember and celebrate the lives of those who have died, especially . . .

Grace Stegall, aunt of Lisa Williams

Marlene Quigley, aunt of Jennie Henderson

. . . By your Holy Spirit, comfort their families, and all who grieve, give peace to those who mourn, strengthen all through the promise of eternal life in Christ Jesus.

L: We pray for all communities and all people who have been impacted by Hurricane Laura. Strengthen and protect all relief workers.

L: Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

L: Lord of all healing, we pray for all healthcare professionals and relief workers, especially those who find themselves on the frontlines to bring healing, comfort and care to all impacted by the coronavirus. Strengthen, encourage, and empower us to be people of peace in the midst of anxiety, impatience, worry, dread, and a hunger for life to be normal again. Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

L: Lord, take the time and gifts you have entrusted to us, and teach us how to use them to give others the abundant life of Jesus – so that your people may rejoice in the new life you give, for you are the life-giver and we are your servants.

C: Amen.

The Lord's Prayer (sung)

C: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil, for the kingdom, the pow'r and the glory are yours, now and forever.

SENDING GOD'S PEOPLE

Benediction

L: May you never feel alone in the struggle for justice and peace.
May you know the support of family, friends, and people who feel as passionately about the world as you do.

May you feel a part of the great cloud of witnesses, who through the ages, did God's work and prayed for the coming of the Kingdom.

May you never feel alone.

And if you do, may you carry in your heart the words of Jesus, who told his friends: "I am with you always."

C: Amen.

Dismissal

L: Go in peace. Serve the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.
